1 INT. UNSPECIFIED LOCATION - DAY 1

An individual sits facing someone we never see. They have come to correct a witness statement made four years earlier.

They're composed, although there's an unmistakable tension beneath the surface.

CHARACTER

I need you to change one word.

In my statement. It says I identified him.

I didn't identify anyone. I said he looked familiar.

(A beat.)

I know. Four years is a long time to get worked up over a verb.

(A small, self-conscious smile.)

I've never been particularly good with deadlines.

(The smile fades.)
